

■ Greetings

English For Comorians — Pre-A1 Lesson

In this lesson, you will learn how to greet people in English — how to say hello, how to ask 'how are you', and how to say goodbye. You will also learn the difference between 'Good morning', 'Good afternoon', 'Good evening', and 'Good night'.

Dans cette leçon, vous allez apprendre à saluer les gens en anglais — comment dire bonjour, comment demander « comment allez-vous » et comment dire au revoir. Vous apprendrez aussi la différence entre « Good morning », « Good afternoon », « Good evening » et « Good night ».

1. New Vocabulary / Nouveau vocabulaire

Only the new words below are translated into French. The rest of the lesson stays in English so your brain gets used to reading English. / Seuls les nouveaux mots ci-dessous sont traduits en français. Le reste de la leçon reste en anglais pour habituer votre cerveau à lire l'anglais.

	French / Français
Hello	Bonjour / Salut
Hi	Salut (informal)
Good morning	Bonjour (le matin)
Good afternoon	Bon après-midi
Good evening	Bonsoir
Good night	Bonne nuit
Goodbye / Bye	Au revoir
See you later	À plus tard
How are you?	Comment allez-vous ? / Ça va ?
I'm fine, thank you	Je vais bien, merci
And you?	Et vous ? / Et toi ?
Nice to meet you	Enchanté(e)
Welcome	Bienvenue

2. Good morning, Good afternoon, Good evening, Good night

These four expressions all mean something like 'hello', but each one is used at a different time of day. Look at the table below.

Expression	When do we use it?	Approximate time
Good morning	When you meet someone in the morning, before noon (12:00 pm).	From when you wake up until 12:00 pm
Good afternoon	When you meet someone in the afternoon, after noon.	From 12:00 pm until about 5–6 pm
Good evening	When you meet someone in the evening, when it starts getting dark.	From about 5–6 pm until you go to bed
Good night	NOT a greeting — it is used to say goodbye before someone goes to sleep.	Only when leaving or going to bed

■ Important rule / Règle importante:

'Good night' is different from the other three. We do NOT use 'Good night' to greet someone when we arrive. We only use it to say goodbye at the end of the evening, or before someone goes to sleep.

« Good night » est différent des trois autres expressions. On n'utilise PAS « Good night » pour saluer quelqu'un quand on arrive. On l'utilise seulement pour dire au revoir à la fin de la soirée, ou avant que quelqu'un aille dormir. « Good morning », « Good afternoon » et « Good evening » peuvent être utilisés pour saluer (en arrivant) ET pour dire au revoir (en partant), selon le moment de la journée.

Situation	English
You arrive at work at 8:00 am	Good morning, Sarah!
You arrive at a meeting at 2:00 pm	Good afternoon, everyone!
You arrive at a party at 7:00 pm	Good evening!
You leave a friend's house at 11:00 pm	Good night! See you tomorrow.

3. Hello, Hi, and Goodbye — anytime

'Hello' and 'Hi' are different from 'Good morning / afternoon / evening' because they are NOT connected to a specific time of day. You can say 'Hello' or 'Hi' at any moment — morning, afternoon, or evening.

« Hello » et « Hi » sont différents de « Good morning / afternoon / evening » car ils ne sont PAS liés à un moment précis de la journée. Vous pouvez dire « Hello » ou « Hi » à tout moment — matin, après-midi ou soir.

- Hello — polite, can be used with anyone, at any time.
 - Hi — informal, used with friends, family, or people your age.
 - Goodbye / Bye — used to leave, at any time of day.

4. Short Dialogue

Amina:	Good morning, Youssouf!
Youssouf:	Good morning, Amina! How are you?
Amina:	I'm fine, thank you. And you?
Youssouf:	I'm fine too, thanks.
Amina:	See you later!
Youssouf:	Bye! Have a good day.
